

Journalism 1

- Advertising, Headlines
- Columns, Editorials
- Entertainment, Features
- History of the Press, Ethics
- Layout, Editing, Yearbook
- News, Interviewing
- Newspaper Page
- Photography, Broadcasting
- Current Events
- Sports

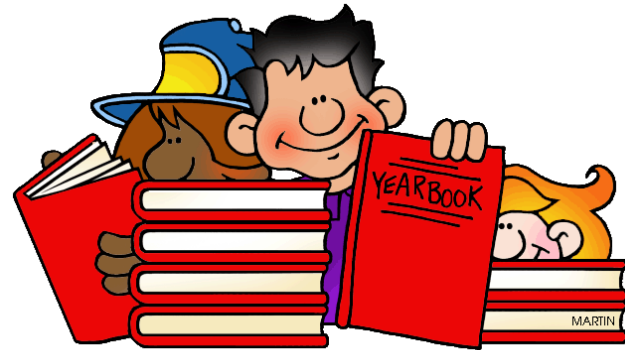

Newspaper

- Student Life
- Sports
- Editorials
- Features
- Layout
- Photography

Yearbook

- Photography
 - Take pictures and edit them
- Layout
 - Create Layouts for Pages
- Copy
 - Interview and tells the story
- Business
 - Sales and Ads

Benefits, Importance, and Future

- Colleges love to see commitment
- Learn more about future career; strong foundation
- Journalism, Yearbook, and Newspaper all count for the required fine arts credit
- Leads to leadership roles which is honors credit
- Yearbook and Journalism look amazing on your resume
 - Colleges know the difficulty of Journalism
 - Colleges know the hard work it takes to be in Yearbook or Newspaper
 - College know the skills you learn to be in Yearbook or Journalism
 - Almost all yearbook students have gone to dream schools like UF, FSU, UNC, etc.

Benefits of other Electives

- Drama
 - Future acting colleges, Future actors/actresses
- Dance
 - FOR EVERYONE, extra class for the already existing dancers
- Band
 - Play at football games and pep rallies

- Art
 - Artists, library presentation
 - Sculpting, drawing, painting

- PE
 - HOPE credit. sports

Computer Courses

- (Web Design, AP Computer Science, and Marketing)
- Learn to be compatible with so many new computer programs
- Present creativity
- Marketing: Learn “adult things”
 - Paying bills, writing checks, credit cards

Club Information

- Join Early
 - Colleges love to see commitment with clubs for 4 years
- Be a leader
 - Being a leader makes you look good for colleges and helps you get into National Honor Society which colleges LOVE
- Top Clubs
 - Best Buddies, Key Club, National Honor Society (after freshman year)
- Skill/ Social Benefits
 - Make friends, learn communication and people skills, you earn lots of service hours

